

Contend for the Faith

Family Work Sheet and Discussion Guide: February 26, 2023

---

Text: Jude 1:1-8

May mercy, peace, and love be _____ to you. I pray that you know God's mercy, peace, and love _____ and _____ – I pray you keep _____ in the Lord.

We must _____ for the faith – we must _____ our way of life – we must _____ up for truth – and _____ together to keep walking by faith.

_____ the good fight of faith. _____ for the Faith. _____ evil with good.
(cf. 1 Tim. 6:12; Romans 12:21)

If we do not contend for the faith, we could find ourselves in a place we do not want to be – a _____ place. But let's contend for the faith and walk in the _____.

For discussion:

1. What sort of things do you regularly pray for on behalf of Christ's church?
2. Read Jude 1:1-8
3. Jude had wanted to write about our common salvation. Take a few minutes to talk about our common salvation. What is it? Who has it? What can it produce in those who have it?
4. Discuss what it means to "contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints."
5. What concerning these "ungodly people" made them so ungodly (v. 4, 8)?
6. What are the examples of verse 5-7 meant to remind Christians?
7. How do we apply this text in our lives today?
