

Keep Love Alive

Family Work Sheet and Discussion Guide: March 12, 2023

Text: Jude 1:17-25

We _____ ourselves in the love of God – we _____ our love relationship with God:

- a) By _____ ourselves up in our most holy faith.
- b) By _____ in the Holy Spirit – _____ in God's will
- c) By waiting (eagerly _____) the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life.

Being like Christ, we are to let mercy _____:

- a) We are to have _____ on those with doubt;
- b) We are to _____ others by snatching them out of the fire;
- c) We are to have _____ on others with our battle gear fully in place – _____ with fear (of God), hating sin.

God _____ to keep us moving forward in faith until he presents us blameless before his presence in glory. So, we will always _____ on God.

For discussion:

1. Think about some people you greatly trust – what kinds of things have you entrusted to such people?
2. Read Jude 1:17-25
3. Discuss positive steps we can take to contend for the faith based on this text. Take some time to discuss each of our individual contributions as well as our collective efforts.
4. Mercy is a theme in these few verses. How have we received mercy and why are we still looking forward to mercy? How is mercy to be expressed in our relationships with others? Why?
5. What might we learn from the doxology of verses 23-24? How does this encourage us in our faithfulness?
