

Renewed Strength: With Wings Like Eagles

Family Worksheet and Discussion Guide: April 25, 2021.

Following along during the sermon - Isaiah 40:27-31

The Lord your God _____ you power when you are faint. He _____ your strength when you feel powerless.

I will _____ on the Lord. I will _____ my soul to him. I will _____ in his strength. I will _____ with great expectation because I _____ my Lord will renew my strength.

I _____ mount up with wings like eagles.

For discussion after the sermon:

1. What is something you like to think about that lifts your spirits when you are feeling down?

Read Isaiah 40:27-31

2. What is the complaint of those in verse 27? If we were Israel, why might we feel justified in our complaint? What was Elijah's complaint in 1 Kings 19:10? Was Elijah justified in his complaint?
3. Why do our feelings sometimes rob us of our confidence in the Lord? Explain.
4. In what ways can the promises of verses 28-31 give us courage and strength to endure times of despair or discouragement? Which of these promises is most encouraging to you? Why?
5. When have you recently felt like God is not paying attention to your concerns? What fears or thoughts filled your mind? How might the truth of this text help renew your strength?
